

Life is a wonderful thing

I woke up this morning - got out of my bed,
Looked in the mirror and I got myself dressed.
With a stretch and a yawn
And a scratch of my head,
“Life is a wonderful thing,” I said,
“Life is a wonderful thing!”

My heart is beating, morning ‘til evening,
I’ve got the breath of life inside.
My heart is dreaming, I’ve got the feeling,
It’s so lovely when you know you’re alive.

I went out this morning and what did I see,
Buds and blossoms and the birds in the trees.
With a skip and a whistle, a thought came to me,
Life is a wonderful thing indeed,
Life is a wonderful thing.

My heart is beating, morning ‘til evening,
I’ve got the breath of life inside.
My heart is dreaming, I’ve got the feeling,
It’s so lovely when you know you’re alive.

I stayed in this morning with little to do,
Mum said, "Son, you better tidy your room."
Then a friend came to see me and I was excused,
Life is a wonderful thing, it's true,
Life is a wonderful thing.

My heart is beating, morning 'til evening,
I've got the breath of life inside.
My heart is dreaming, I've got the feeling,
It's so lovely when you know you're alive.

I woke up this morning and here's what I thought,
'What surprises would I find at my door?'
With a new day before, with plenty in store,
Life is a wonderful thing for sure,
Life is a wonderful thing.

Life is a wonderful thing, uhuh,
Life is a wonderful thing.

Every brand-new day

I'm so glad to do all the things I can do,
the list is endless!
Every day we have brings us something that's new,
with opportunities!

Just as long as I'm breathing,
I'll be grateful with all my being,
Live my life with a song
Every brand-new day.

Things go wrong and problems will come in my way,
it often happens!
I can look beyond all the cares of the day,
it won't come easily!

Just as long as I'm breathing,
I'll be grateful with all my being,
Live my life with a song
Every brand-new day.

I'm so glad to know there are people who care,
they're all around us.

If I'm feeling sad, there'll be somebody there,
with open arms for me!

Just as long as I'm breathing,
I'll be grateful with all my being,
Live my life with a song
Every brand-new day.

Life my life with a song,
Every brand-new day.

Every Journey

Every journey begins with a small step,
every race has a starting line.
Keep on reaching out for your goal,
don't give up, just give it time.

Repeat

When the mountain seems too steep to climb,
just keep moving on,
just keep moving on.
When the pathway seems too hard to find,
just remember this – we must stay strong.

Every journey begins with a small step,
every race has a starting line.
Keep on reaching out for your goal,
don't give up, just give it time.

When the river seems too wide to swim,
just keep moving on,
just keep moving on.
When the battle seems too tough to win,
just remember this – we must stay strong.

Every journey begins with a small step,

every race has a starting line.

Keep on reaching out for your goal,

don't give up, just give it time.

Repeat

Don't give up, just give it time.

When it's a sunny day

When it's a sunny day,
it puts a smile on my face.
I'll sing a song to keep me happy,
when it's a sunny day.

When it's a windy day,
it blows my troubles away.
I'll chase around to keep me happy,
when it's a windy day.

To-day,
whatever the weather we can make the most of our time.
To-day,
we're in it together so it doesn't matter if the sun won't shine.

When it's a foggy day,
it doesn't have to be grey.
I'll find a way to keep me happy,
when it's a foggy day.

When it's a rainy day,
(it's going to happen again!)

I'll make a splash to keep me happy,
when it's a rainy day.

To-day,
whatever the weather we can make the most of our time.

To-day,
we're in it together so it doesn't matter if the sun won't shine.

When it's a sunny day,
it puts a smile on my face.
I'll sing a song to keep me happy,
when it's a sunny day,
when it's a sunny day,
when it's a sunny day.

Time for everything

There's a time to laugh,
there's a time to cry,
a time to ask the question, "Why?"
There's a time for birth,
when you say, "Hello,"
a time to turn and wave goodbye.

There's a time to reap
and a time to sow,
a time to wait and watch things grow.
There's a time for everything,
it's all a part of life.

There's a time to work,
there's a time to play,
a time to learn in every day.
There's a time to build,
and a time to mend,
and there's time to throw away.

There's a time to find,
and a time to lose

and there's a time for you to choose.

There's a time for everything,

it's all a part of life.

There's a time to shout,

there's a time to talk and there's a time for simple thoughts.

There's a time to rush,

there's a time to stop and there's a time for gentle walks.

There's a time to do

and a time to dream,

a time to doubt and to believe.

There's a time for everything,

it's all a part of life.

Now that summer has come

The sun's in the sky,
the temperature's rising.
The clouds have gone by,
the outlook is fine and so am I!

This lovely weather,
has got me singing a happy tune,
all my cares have gone –
now that summer has come.

The birds in the trees,
are whistling sweetly.
The delicate breeze,
is keeping me cool and feeling fine.

This lovely weather,
has got me singing a happy tune,
all my cares have gone-
now that summer has come.

The sun's in the sky,
the temperature's rising.

The clouds have gone by,
the outlook is fine and so am I!

This lovely weather,
has got me singing a happy tune,
all my cares have gone –
now that summer has come.
